5. New Business/Correspondence
 - 5.1. Review proposal for professional player development support -F. Deutsch, J. Twinem
 - 5.1.1. To meet the OSA's licensing requirements the Club needs to be advancing our player development program. The partnership with the Whitecaps entered into before Covid may not be the best value for the Club. In the past, the summer Challenger program
 - 5.1.2. Investing in the players in TillsonburgFC as early on in their development as possible sets the player, the team and the club up best for long term success. The sooner that can be brought to the Club the better.
 - 5.1.3. The proposal is to seek an arrangement with an individual who could provide technical consulting working with coaches and players at all age levels to teach them training methodologies and individual skills and techniques related to the offensive phase of the game.
 - 5.1.4. Frank and John will continue to explore the legalities and risks of this approach with a lawyer.
