

MATTHEW AUGUST

Matthew August is a former professional athlete and accomplished coach with experience spanning international professional volleyball, NCAA Division I competition, and elite club programs. He currently coaches with Balboa Bay Volleyball Club and serves as an assistant coach for Tstreet's nationally ranked 17-1s team, one of the premier programs in the country. In these roles, he works with high-level athletes preparing for Division I and professional careers, emphasizing advanced systems training, position-specific development, and competitive consistency.

August previously served as the Head Men's Volleyball Coach at Benedictine University Mesa and as an assistant at Grand Canyon University during one of the most successful runs in program history, including a conference championship, a win over UCLA, and consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances with a Final Four finish. He also coached professionally in Denmark, leading both men's and women's teams while implementing high-level tactical systems and performance analytics.

A former professional middle blocker in the Czech Republic and India, August brings an international perspective and championship experience to his coaching. His philosophy centers on discipline, culture, and developing complete athletes prepared to succeed at the highest levels of the game.
