Good N Plenty vs. El Nino

Game 1

Jack Gemal started his season off with a leadoff homer. Abie Kassin's 2 out double kept the rally going and helped put Good N Plenty ahead by 3. El Nino got on the board with an Isaac Dweck triple and a Jackie Braha sac fly. Things stayed quiet until the 3rd when Morris Shamah roped a single to spark his team. Jackie Braha and David Gindi followed suit with their own base hits. At the end of three, the score was tied 3-3. Eric Epstein scored for Good N Plenty on a Charlie Ashko RBI to take the lead for the last time. Moscs Eastman settled in to nab Gemal and Jocy Tobias without giving up another run. El Nino fought back in the bottom half of the 5th led by the dynamic duo of Jackie Braha and David Gindi. Each of them ripped triples to key the crucial rally that put them ahead to stay. The two of them combined for a 6-7 game with 3 RBI's. Eastman closed the books on Good N Plenty by giving up only 1 hit in the all important last 3 innings.

FINAL: El Nino-6 Good N Plenty-4

Game 2

Good N Plenty was not about to be swept by El Nino. Jack Gemal led his team off again with some clutch hitting. Jocy Tobias and Jackie Ashko both followed Gemal around the bases to jump out to another quick 3-0 lead. Jackie G didn't let up in the 2nd inning. He hit his 3rd extra base hit of the day, and scored on a Joey Tobias bingle. David Ashear got El Nino back into the game with a 3 run homer to make it 4-3. After Abie Ades doubled and scored on an Alan Dweck single, El Nino moused another rally that looked like it would finish off Good N Plenty. With men on 1st and 3rd, El Nino couldn't cash in. Bobby Morabia's double play ended the inning. They held on at 5-4 until Jack Gemal got up again. He singled and hustled his way home to score on a sac fly to tie it up. The game of Jacks went back and forth as Braha pulled his team back ahead in the 6th with a big RBI double. Things were getting interesting with 3 lead changes so far in the game. With the score 6-5 going into the bottom of the 6th, GNP looked dead. A trio of rookies juiced up the team with some clutch hitting. Abie Kassin, Eric Epstein, and Sandy Shalom pumped hits into the outfield to begin the rally. Joe T gave himself some room to work with a 2 out hit to drive in a pair to finish off El Nino 10-6.

FINAL: Good N Plenty-10 El Nino-6

Respect vs. Wizz Kidzz

Game 1

Jay Dee's Kidzz teed off on Jefferey Saka in the 1st. JD, Ikey Gemal, and Jason Gindi did most of the damage in chalking up 4 runs. Although Saka's pitching wasn't up to par, he homered in the 2nd for his team's 1st run. The 1-2 punch of JD and Gemal tallied 2 more in the second for the Wizz Kidzz. But after jumping out to an early 6-1 lead, the Kidzz couldn't hold on. Labo took advantage of the lefty power on "Dow A" for a 2 run homer to make it 6-3. Eli Cohen's dramatic game tying 3 run homer in the 6th made it 6-all. As Saka went to work on the mound, he began to get the groove back. He shut down the Wizz Kidzz by not allowing run in the 4th, 5th, 6th, and 7th innings. Meanwhile, David Ancona came up with a huge double in the 7th to put Respect ahead. Elliot Braha and Ikey Levy also scored to give them the 9-6 win. David Franco's double in the bottom of the 7th went to waste as Saka got the important last 3 outs.

FINAL: Respect-9 Wizz Kidzz-7

Game 2

Unless they wanted to see themselves in the week 1 standings as the "izz Kidzz", the first game losers knew they had to get their act together. After shaking up the lineup, the Wizz Kidzz began to hit Saka. Leon Sakkal's tremendous 2 run homer fired up his team. David Franco dusted off the cobwebs of the offseason with his own 2 run homer to make it 4-2. Respect broke the shutout with a run in the 4th inning when Labo drove in Ancona. Jason Gindi and Ikey Gemal brought the lead back to 4 with a pair of doubles. Down 5-1 going into the 5th, Respect was not about to roll over. Ikey Levy and Solly Chehebar ignited a 2 out rally with hits. Ancona and Braha's back-to-back triples made it 5-4 and had the Wizz Kidzz wondering if they would get swept. Ezra Ashkenazi kept his composure to retire the next 3 innings, including 2 strikeouts in the 7th inning.

FINAL: Wizz Kidzz-6 Respect-4

Brooklyn Rockies vs. Ball Busters

Game 1

Steven Ashear's boys squared off against Stephen Ashear's Rockies in the season opener. While Richie Shalom started off his season with a 2-run homer to put the BB's up early on, the score wouldn't stay that way for long. Stash's Rockies came back with a 4 run 2nd inning and a 2-run 3rd inning. The bottom of the order did most of the damage with Ikey Cohen and Eli Haddad both contributing big triples. With a comfortable 6-2 lead, Ikey Malch settled in to silence the Ball Busters. Isaac Saka drove in Jason Sultan in the 6th to put the nail in the coffin. Richie Shalom's continued to hammer the ball as he homered again in the 7th. Malch closed out the game despite the late inning rally. Other than the loss in the standings, it seems that the Ball Busters will have to replace Big Solly after he hurt his knee early on in the game.

Game 2

The second game proved to be a replica of the opener as the Rockies latter part of the lineup came through once again. The combination of Malch, Ezra Jemal, Cohen, and Haddad mass-produced 4 runs in the 2nd, and a 6 run 3rd. This crucial rally was fueled by a collection of singles from the 6-10 slots in the batting order. Meanwhile, Ikey Malch was working his magic on the mound as the Ball Busters were left wondering how to hit him. Eddie Rishty and Michael Farca drove in a pair of runs to cut the lead to 10-2 after 3 innings. Eli Haddad single-handedly took over offensively. He went 3-4 with 5 ribbies in this one, giving him 7 R.B.I.'s on the day. After another Ikey Malch triple in the 5th, the Rockies went up by a score of 14-2. Abie Tobias, Marc Dwek and Jimmy Sutton all singled and scored late in the game, but the 7th inning rally was too little too late for a second game in a row. The storyline on this one was the bottom of the order for Brooklyn, and the solid pitching of Ikey Malch.

Happy Daze vs. Repeat Offenders

Game 1

In a pregame ceremony put together by commissioner Shomer, Red Nesser, Richie Braha, and Sammy Jemal all received their championship rings. This year, they went up against each other with some new faces in each dugout. Eddie Mishan got things going early with a RBI double driving in Buca. Mishan had an amazing game by notching 3 hits, scoring 3 times and posting 3 RBI's. The Jail Birds came back with a 7 run inning in the 3rd sparked by Sammy Jemal and Jackie Peaches home runs. Happy Daze answered with Mishan clocking a 2 run homer. After Ray Day doubled and scored, his team cut it to 7-6. The seesaw game continued as Shomer smacked a homer to make it 9-6. Fonz Mishan answered the call once again for Happy Daze with another 2 run blast that put them within one at 9-8. Up against the wall in the 7th, Eddie Mishan spraked another rally with a double. This time, Ray Day's 7th inning heroics came through with the game-winning homer.

FINAL: Happy Daze-10 Repeat-9

Game 2

After a heart-breaking loss in the opener, the R.O.'s were looking to come out strong in the second game. Rookie Ikey Yedid came out blazing on the mound, quieting the Happy Daze bats. Jackie Harary's double in the 3rd was the only run they would see for a while. Up by a run going into the bottom of the 4th, it looked like Red would outpitch Yedid in this one. Isaac Danziger's double followed up on a Peaches base hit to tie the game. Then in the 5th, it was shades of "The Goof '97". Shomer, Richie Braha, and Sammy J put together a 4 run rally in the 5th inning. Jemal's 3 run homer was his second 3-run shot of the day. This one put the Repeat Offenders ahead for good. With a 5-1 lead, Yedid finished off the Happy Daze lineup without a threat to the lead. Veteran Eddie Beda's triple late in the game got him into the paper this week, but his one run wasn't enough to match the R.O.'s attack. Ikey Yedid pitched a gem in this game holding Happy Daze to only 2 runs on 8 hits.

FINAL: Repeat-5 Happy Daze-2
