

Refunds will be granted once requested in writing and approved. Any items or services received will be returned unused or deducted from the refund amount. We will also deduct any expenses we incurred as a result of the participant's registration. PPO reserves the right to determine how much is refundable once a request is received. No refunds will be issued after July 17th, 2022.

In the event May training is shortened or cancelled due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, no refunds or adjustments will be issued. However, if the main part of the season that begins in early July is cancelled due to COVID-19, forcing us to shut down the entire program, we will issue you a full refund.
