Chestnut Hill Youth Sports Club

NO STOPPING US!

The inclement weather has not slowed our programming down! What better way to keep our youngsters active than continuing our practices and games on whenever safe and possible. The warm gyms at the Water Tower, Springside Chestnut Hill Academy, and Wissahickon Charter School have been a haven against the elements. Thank you to the dedicated coaches and parents for braving the elements to keep things rolling!

Highlights: Travel Basketball

I hope this message finds you well and buzzing with excitement after an unforgettable weekend of basketball action! Our 6th Grade Boys Lightning Travel Team has certainly set the court ablaze with their remarkable performance, securing a thrilling 3-game win streak and boasting a stellar record of 3-2 as we dive headfirst into 2024.

Friday Night Lights at Home:

The weekend kicked off with a spectacular Home game against Perkiomen Valley on Friday, January 12th. Our 6th Grade Boys showcased their prowess, dominating the court and securing their first win of the season with an impressive final score of 63-38.

Saturday Showdown on the Road:

Undeterred and riding the wave of their Friday victory, our Lightning team hit the road on Saturday to face off against King of Prussia at Upper Merion Rec. The boys delivered yet another stellar performance, claiming victory with a final score of 57-44. Oliver Rabe and Zyon Waters exhibited exceptional skills, leaving an indelible mark on the court.

Sunday Thriller Away from Home:

The weekend crescendoed with an edge-of-your-seat game against Boyertown on Sunday. The 6th Grade Boys engaged in a fierce battle, emerging triumphant with a nail-biting final score of 47-44. Zyon Waters and Oliver Rabe once again stole the spotlight with their outstanding contributions, while Patrick Foley's clutch plays in the fourth quarter sealed the deal in the very last seconds of the game.
