Article IX: Coaches

Section 1: Head Coaches

- Head Coaches will determine the assignments of the assistant coaches, after said assistants have been approved by the Board.
- It is recommended that Head Coaches attend League approved clinics dealing with equipment, conditioning, injuries, first aid, and rules each season.
- It is mandatory that a member of each team's football coaching staff attend a rules clinic in conjunction with the Referee's Association to be scheduled prior to the start of the season, at which time the Operating Rules and Regulations and Football rules for the season will be discussed. If a team is not represented, the Head Coach will be suspended for the 2nd week of practice.
- It is mandatory that a member of each teams cheer coaching staff attend the League Spirit Meeting prior to the League Cheer Competition. If a team is not represented, the Head Coach will be suspended for the week prior to the Spirit Competition.
- All coaches shall attend meetings scheduled by the Coordinator for their division.
- All coaches shall abide by the Coaches Code of Conduct
- If for any reason a Head Coach resigns during the season or is unable to finish the season, the President will call an emergency meeting with the Executive Board and will appoint a new Head Coach.
- Head Coaches will be responsible for assisting in player registration.
- The Head Coach is responsible for supervising his/her players at all practices and games. In his absence one of his assistants may assume this responsibility. However, at no time should a game take place without two (2) Football Coaches to supervise the activity.
- The Head Coach cannot be Head Coach for more than one (1) team.
- The Head Coach shall assist the Fundraising Coordinator(s) with fundraising efforts and activities.
- The Head Coach must assist the Equipment Manager with the issuing and return of equipment/uniforms.
- The Head Coach has final responsibility for his/her actions and those of his/her assistant coaches, players, staff and parents.
- The Head Coach is responsible to insure his/her team/squad is properly attired according to the uniform policy set by The Board.
- All Head Coach's must hold a current coaching certificate.
