

CCHL - FREE PRACTICE

Saturday, May 4th 10-10:50am & Tuesday, May 21st 7-8pm

For anyone interested in participating on one of the CCHL Teams for upcoming season.

- FREE information session and practice session for anyone interested in participating on the Hagerstown Ice and Sports Complex CCHL Teams for the upcoming season.
- Wanting to field teams at the U10, U12, and U14 levels next season. The free practice is open to anyone birth years 2010-2005. Males and females are welcome.
- Season consists of weekly practice sessions and participation in the Capital Corridor Hockey League (CCHL) which consists of six home games and six away games and an end of season tournament. Other fun events events and games will be coordinated throughout the season.
- This is a cost efficient option to provide players additional ice time and instruction and an introduction into travel hockey.
- Experienced coaches will be assigned to each team to help develop players.
- The Free session will be run by Chad Ziegler, Matt Tisler, Jeff Britton, and Evan Jones.

Please refer questions to Hockey Director, Chad Ziegler, at programdirector@hagerstownice.org