

WRESTLING MANAGER CONTRACT

*As stated in the Task lists there are expectations and here they will be laid out and you will sign at the bottom if you feel you are able to be a manager. Failure to respect this contract will result in termination of manager position. Moral of the story - just follow the rules.

1. You are to finish what you started. Once you join the team you should finish the season. If you decide to quit, your decision is final, you will be unable to rejoin unless you write a 200-300 word paper to the head coach explaining why you should be allowed back.
2. Managers are to be reliable. If you say you will do something, the other managers and coaching staff expect you to do it.
3. Managers are to be responsible. You have a very important job to do and if you do not take it seriously, it could negatively impact many individuals and the wrestlers' performance.
4. Managers are to be trustworthy. If you cannot be trusted, you will not attend out of town events or overnight events. All school rules apply while performing the duties of being a wrestling manager.
5. Managers are to be accurate. Sometimes the difference between a win and a loss is having people keep the correct score. Any small mistake can be the difference in a match, Your job is more important than you realize. Everyone is human and all make mistakes. Try to keep it limited.
6. Managers are to be on time. If you can't be on time, be early.
7. Managers are to keep good grades. Keep grades above a C+ in all academic classes.
8. You are to be respectful to all coaching staff and other managers. They boys may get annoying and mean, if they are rude or disrespectful you contact the head manager or one of the coaches.
9. You are the first to get there and last to leave for every event.
10. You are not to distract the wrestlers before or after the match

11. You are not to talk to boys from the other team
12. You are to be prepared and ready by the time the first JV match starts
13. Show the other school that FHS Managers are respectful individuals.
14. You represent the women of the program, act like it.
15. You are to record every match - accurately
16. You are to do every match in the score book as well - also accurately.
17. You are to be there on time and stay all day. You stay until the last piece of garbage is picked up from the bleachers
18. You are to be helpful and kind. You will help all the coaches and other managers when need be.
