Reasons for 3v3 Basketball

Small - sided games make the game of basketball much more fun for youth basketball players. 3v3 basketball will also impact a young players' long term development by delivering a fun and competitive on-court experience, while also creating additional opportunities for boys/girls to engage in play, foster skill development, and cultivate friendships and character values.

Benefits of 3v3 basketball

- More touches for every player
- Players learn to play all positions
- More scoring opportunities
- Less crowded court means more space to work
- Eliminates zone defenses and forces coaches to teach man to man.
- Teaches players when to use a skill.
- Offensive and defensive skills and knowledge are utilized every possession
- Requires teamwork and fosters skill development
- Players must always be active and engaged.
- Players must make decisions
