

JUNIOR STEELHEADS COVID-19 PLAN

Overview:

This document sets forth the action plan for Boise Youth Amateur Hockey Association, Inc., dba Jr. Steelheads (the “Organization”). The primary purpose of this document is to establish guidelines for the Organization in order to promote the safety of its members and to satisfy the requirements of the City of Boise in order to utilize Idaho Ice World (IIW). The information in this document is not intended or implied to be a substitute for the rules and regulations established by IIW and the City of Boise, Ada County, the State of Idaho, or any other government body or agency. The knowledge and circumstances around COVID-19 are changing constantly and, as such, the Organization makes no representations and assumes no responsibility for the accuracy or completeness of this information. Further, you should seek advice from public health officials if you have specific questions about your return to training or participation in the Organization’s activities.

Rules:

- All participants, and their parents, agree to be respectful of the rules and regulations established by Idaho Ice World.
- In order to participate in any Organization activity, participants must have no signs or symptoms of COVID-19 the previous 14 days.
- Participants are to use their own equipment and avoid touching each other with their hands.
- Participants are to utilize their own water bottle.
- Participants and their parents shall minimize the time they spend inside Idaho Ice World.
- No spectators will be allowed for any on-ice activities.
- Locker rooms will not be available. Players must be willing and able to come partially dressed if possible.
- Following the ice session, Players must quickly undress and exit Idaho Ice World.
- All participants and their families shall adhere to social distancing while they are at Idaho Ice World, including the parking lot area.

By participating in the Organization’s activities, you are agreeing to adhere to the rules and regulations set forth in this document. You further acknowledge that additional rules may be implemented, without notice, and you agree to follow any such rules and guidelines established, which are a condition to being allowed to utilize Idaho Ice World.