Brett Treasurer Report:

Nicky: World Series Jerseys

ZaZa:

1. Lugnutz will be returning in D.
2. At the D ratings meeting, I discussed with Randy and Biscuit that if there were old C players, who have just been re-rated using the new ratings, and they are now rated as eligible D players...that those players should be given the choice to remain in C or play this fall in D. If they choose to play in D, that they should be put into the free-agent/new player draft pool.
3. Can we get an updated flyer for the new player clinic?
4. Will there be a draft of new players? When/Where/Time?
